

ΣΥΝΕΔΡΙΑ - CONFERENCES

CAA 2002

Call for Papers

COMPUTER APPLICATIONS AND QUANTITATIVE METHODS IN ARCHAEOLOGY CONFERENCE

(2-6 April, 2002, Heraklion, Crete, Greece)

<http://www.caa2002.gr>

CAA2002 will be held in Heraklion, Crete, Greece from 2 to 6 April 2002. Pre-conference workshops will be organized on 2 April, while the main conference will take place from 3 to 5 April and a full-day excursion to an archaeological site will be arranged for 6 April. The scientific programme will be organized in plenary and parallel sessions and will include contributed papers and invited lectures, as well as posters and demonstrations. Time slots for contributed papers will be 30 or 15 minutes long, including discussion.

Details concerning the organization of the conference, submission of paper, poster and workshop proposals, registration, travel and accommodation will be posted on the CAA2002 Web page <http://www.caa2002.gr>

Conference main theme

“The Digital Heritage of Archeology”

With computers and electronic communication, information of high quality can be produced at an unprecedented rate, and it can be predicted that shortly the digital form of knowledge keeping will dominate all others, giving rise to a rapidly increasing body of knowledge, which could genuinely be called the "Digital Heritage of Archeology". This situation poses a series of challenges. First, how to create knowledge in a form we expect to be most useful in the future, even for purposes as yet unspecified. Epistemological questions of interdisciplinary nature between archeology and computer science thus arise about objectives and methods. Second, questions of management of the wealth of data, its preservation, and its organization to make it available as a resource for research and education. The semantic connection of information about archeological objects in museums and in archives from archeological research is also part of this set of questions. Third, how technologies, such as GIS, virtual reality, simulation, etc., can best be used to exploit this knowledge and to advance research, as well as to assess the needs of field study documentation in the future. CAA2002 provides a good opportunity to draw attention to such an integrated view of the use of computer technology in the service of archeology.

Conference topics

- Epistemology and Interdisciplinary Aspects
- Inference and archaeological discourse
- Archaeological reconstitution and artefact analysis
- Cognitive systems and conceptual modeling: tools for reasoning in archaeology?
- Documentation and primary knowledge creation
- Conceptual modeling and data standards for field and object documentation
- Digitization and annotation of archaeological archives
- Archaeometry
- Management of the digital heritage
- GIS as a research resource
- Access to archaeological knowledge in museums
- Access to archaeological archives
- Data standards for scientific and educational data exchange on the Internet
- Classification systems and thesauri
- Archeological information on the Internet - potential and evaluation
- Preservation of digital archaeological data
- Secondary knowledge creation tools
- Virtual reality as a tool for presenting and evaluating alternative scientific interpretations
- Virtual reality as a tool for educational and recreational use of archaeological contents
- GIS as a reasoning tool
- Statistics and quantitative methods
- Simulation methods for the creation and testing of archaeological hypotheses

Important dates

As soon as possible: Expression of interest to submit a 30/15 minute paper or a poster

1.11.2001 : Submission of abstracts
20.12.2001 : Notification of acceptance

Organization

9TH CONFERENCE OF THE
INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF
ARCHAEOZOOLOGY (ICAZ) 23RD-28TH
AUGUST 2002

The general aim of this conference will be to place the study of zooarchaeology within the framework of broader archaeological questions, around the theme of human behaviour. We also want to encourage the exchange of information and ideas between researchers working in different regions and periods

General programme

- Friday 23rd      Arrival and Registration
Plenary Lecture (7.15pm cathedral)
Reception (8.15pm cloisters)
- Saturday 24th      Sessions
- Sunday 25th      Sessions (ICAZ general meeting 5-7pm)
- Monday 26th      Sessions Conference Banquet
- Tuesday 27th      Excursions (half or full day) or day off (pm ICAZ council meeting)

(NB Excursions have been moved from Monday to Tuesday, to avoid the crowds of the English holiday on Monday)
- Wednesday 28th      Sessions and working groups

Scientific programme

The general aim of this meeting will be to place the study of zooarchaeology within the framework of broader archaeological questions, around the theme of human behaviour. Colin Tudge (author of Neanderthals, Bandits and Farmers; Last Animals at the Zoo; and The Day Before Yesterday) will give the Plenary lecture in Durham Cathedral.

Sessions already offered are:

The role of zooarchaeology in wildlife conservation issues

Session organiser - Ina Plug (Transvaal Museum, Pretoria, South Africa)

Beyond calories: The zooarchaeology of ritual and religion

Session organiser - Sharyn Jones O'Day (University of Florida, Gainesville, USA)

Human and animal migration and colonisation

Session organiser – Atholl Anderson (Australian National University, Canberra)

Ageing and sexing

Session organiser – Deborah Ruscillo (University of Winnipeg, Canada)

Beyond 'interesting specimens': palaeopathology and its contribution to the study of animal husbandry

Session organisers – Richard Thomas (University of Birmingham, UK) and Jessica Davies (University of Sheffield, UK)

Milk, milking and dairying

Session organiser – Jacqui Mulville (University of Oxford, UK)

Session organisers – Mariana Mondini and Sebastián Muñoz (Universidad de Buenos Aires, Argentina)

New methods and the first steps of mammal domestication

Session organisers – Daniel Helmer, Joris Peters & Jean-Denis Vigne (Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle, Paris, France)

Neanderthal Ecology

Session Organiser - Ariane Burke (U. of Manitoba; Canada)

Equations for Inequality. The Archaeozoology of Identity, Status and other forms of Social Differentiation in former Human Societies

Session organisers – Wim Van Neer (Royal Museum of Central Africa, Tervuren, Belgium) and Anton Ervynck (Institute of the Archaeological Heritage of the Flemish Community, Asse-Zellik, Belgium)

Archaeozoology and archaeological heritage management

Session Organiser - Roel Lauwerier (National Service for Archaeological Heritage, Amersfoort, the Netherlands)

Equids in time and space

Session Organiser - Marjan Mashkour (Museum national d'Histoire naturelle, Laboratoire d'Anatomie Comparee, Paris, France)

Beyond 'Affluent Foragers': the development of fisher-hunter societies

Session Organiser - Junzo Uchiyama (Japan)

The contribution to zooarchaeology of fossil and modern non-anthropogenic bone accumulations

Session organisers – Philippe Fosse (Laboratoire de Paléontologie, Université de Montpellier, France), Jean Philip Brugal (Maison Méditerranéenne des Sciences de l'Homme, Aix-en-Provence, France) and Liora Kolska Horwitz (Department of Evolution, Systematics and Ecology, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel).

Coastal adaptations in arid environments

Session organisers – Mark Beech (Department of Archaeology, University of York, UK) and Caroline Cartwright (British Museum, London, UK)

Publication

Individual sessions will be published by Oxbow Books (Oxford) as a single series of the ICAZ 2002 conference.

The editing of each volume will be the responsibility of session organisers.

In some cases it may be necessary to combine separate sessions that have a common element within the same volume.

Guidelines for authors will be available shortly.

Conference Venue and Organisation

Conference Venue:

The scientific programme will be focussed around the department of Archaeology

Conference Organisers:

Keith Dobney, Umberto Albarella, Peter Rowley-Conwy and Jacqui Huntley

Conference Venue:

St Catherine's College, University of Oxford.

Please note: We have space for a maximum of 160 delegates for this meeting.

Oral and Poster Papers

The oral papers will be presented in the main conference venue at St Catherine's College.

The theatre is called the Bernard Sunley Lecture Theatre. See attached location maps.

Oral papers will be of 20 minutes duration with five minutes discussion. Session chairs will enforce time limits without exception so please plan accordingly. The conference lecture room has overhead projection facilities, slide projector, flip charts, and a data projector and computer for PowerPoint presentations.

Poster papers will be displayed for the entire duration of the conference in an adjoining room off the lobby in the conference venue at the Bernard Sunley Lecture Theatre.

Stand-alone poster presentation sessions are planned for the conference. We plan to have 5 minute presentations in which attention can be drawn to the poster by the author.

Poster boards will be of 'portrait' format and the area available for each poster will be A0 maximum size. Velcro for placing posters will be provided.

Publication

All conference papers and posters will be published in a refereed conference proceedings.

Please attempt to bring manuscripts with you to the conference by providing a diskette copy and a printed version. Please keep one copy for your records.

Social Events:

Wednesday April 10: Icebreaker function, University Museum of Natural History, University of Oxford.

Thursday April 11: Conference dinner, St Catherine's College, Oxford (£48).

Friday April 12: Excursion and fieldtrip.

Option 1: All day field trip visiting the archaeological sites of Avebury, Stonehenge,

West Kennet long barrow, Uffington, White Horse Hill & Wayland's Smithy.

Option 2: Hampton Court palace and boat cruise.

Option 3: Oxford City tour, including colleges and Museums.

Getting to Oxford:

By Air: arriving at Heathrow or Gatwick, take the Airport Bus (X70), which leaves for Oxford every 30 minutes and costs about 10 pounds.

By Rail: there is a frequent direct service from London Paddington and from Birmingham New Street. For further information telephone the Passenger Train Information Service at Oxford Railway Station: (+44 (0) 1685 722333) or check this website: <http://www.railtrack.co.uk/travel/> For booking train tickets, visit <http://www.trainline.com>

By Bus: there is a direct service by the Oxford Express from London, Victoria Coach Station. The Oxford Tube Company runs a service from Victoria and Marble Arch. There are National Express services from most major cities, arriving at Gloucester Green Coach Station. Journey time from central London is about 1 hour 15 minutes. The cost is about £10.

For maps of Oxford City, please visit the WWW:
<http://www.ox.ac.uk/aboutoxford/maps/index.shtml>

Accommodation:

Attached you will find an accommodation registration form for St Catherine's College. Please fill out this form if you want accommodation here. St Catherine's is located near the centre of the city, within reach of colleges, museums and nightlife. It is a modern and comfortable college with a bar, two large common rooms, dining hall, gymnasium, squash court, a punt house and of course the conference facilities on site. In addition, the college has six rooms designed for people with disabilities. A choice of full board or bed and breakfast accommodation is offered, with optional en suite extra.

33rd INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON ARCHAEOMETRY

(22-26 APRIL 2002 AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS)

GENERAL

The Archaeometry symposium will be held for the first time in the Netherlands and the symposium certainly will be a stimulus for the development of archaeological science in the Netherlands. The local organizing committee is looking forward to meeting a large number of colleagues in Amsterdam.

The symposium will be organized by the Vrije Universiteit (VU) at Amsterdam and the Rijksdienst voor het Oudheidkundig Bodemonderzoek (ROB, National Institute for Archaeological Heritage Management) at Amersfoort.

VENUE

The symposium will be held in Amsterdam in the Main Building of the Vrije Universiteit. See "Venue info" in the menu for details about the location and Amsterdam.

SESSIONS

The symposium has seven sessions (no parallel sessions). Six of them are regular, while a seventh theme session is selected by the local organizing committee. An afternoon break with an excursion is planned in the middle of the symposium. See "Symposium" in menu for details on the sessions and excursion.

KEY DATES

- Deadline for submitting Abstracts: 1 December 2001
- Notification of acceptance or rejection: February 2002
- Deadline for early registration and hotel reservation: 1 February 2002
- Deadline for payment of registration fee by speakers: 1 March 2002
- Deadline for submitting manuscripts to be published in Proceedings: 1 July 2002

NEW BOOK RELEASE

A LM IA Ceramic Kiln in South Central Crete: Function and Pottery Production by Joseph W Shaw, Aleydis van de Moortel, Peter M Day and Vassilis Kilikoglou
An in-depth study of the Late Minoan IA cross-draft kiln found during excavations at Kommos on Crete. The kiln is of a type that was popular during the Neopalatial period, and its good state of preservation has allowed the authors to speculate about its original internal layout and use, as well as the roof that covered it. The large quantity of locally produced pottery found in association with the kiln is analysed, allowing a detailed study of the shapes, decoration, and technical characteristics of vases fired in a LM IA kiln. 200p, 74 figs, 16 tabs (Hesperia Supplement 30, American School of Classical Studies 2001)

Call for Papers for Volume 6 (2002) ANISTORITON Journal (in English)

ANISTORITON was founded in 1997 and is a peer-reviewed Internet and CD-ROM Journal of History, Archaeology & ArtHistory.

ANISTORITON is the greek word for "ignorant in History."

ANISTORITON is an attempt to bridge the gap between professional Historians and Archaeologists and their specialized research, on the one hand, and the general public, the true history and archaeology lovers, on the other.

Contributions from students, especially graduate students (papers, case studies, analyses etc.) as well as other non-specialists for our Viewpoints section are also welcome and encouraged.

Please use in the subject area of your e-mail message the word ANISTORITON and e-mail your inquiries, questions and papers to:
